As One Goes Around

I had watched a bad traffic snarl Friday and mentally I complimented the policeman who handled it. The manner in which he instantly sized up and straightened out mixed-up cars on the busy street convinced me he was a first-class Copper. Suddenly I saw him, apparently, lose interest in the movements of mis-directing drivers of cars and I followed his eyes to the Island almost opposite the Branch of the Bank of America on the corner of Market and Montgomery streets. There was a mass of almost solid, milling humanity, semingly trying to move at once. A few inches above the line of feet I discovered a long brown nose and the earnest, inquiring eyes of a dog. The Police officer had seen the dog's head before I had and he was going straight to the spot the dog was held in between legs of men and women trying to shove forward at once.

A whistle sounded.

The Cop raised a powerful fore-arm in a command to move back.

It had some result, but it was not effective enough and the Copper kept on.

When right in front of the dog the police officer got his two hands in motion and separated the sardine-like packed men and women. Then he reached in and, using his big hands rapidly, shoved the more obstinate individuals aside. He patted the dog and spoke to the little man, whose smallness had hidden him from view. The officer said something to the little man, then the dog moved forward. I saw a white cane, held in the little man's hand, flash as the sun shone on it. The big Cop stood by and bawled out a tough cab driver, who was in a hurry. Then he went to the side of the trapped - in man and said something. The little man and the dog crossed the divided street and stood in front of the old De Young Building — where the Chronicle was published for years. I was close to the man and dog now. The harness on the dog's back, the white cane and the unseeing eyes I looked into as I studied the little man's face told the story. The little man was blind.

Over in the middle of the struggling mass of humanity and drivers of cars in a hurry, on Market street, looming head and shoulders above pedestrians, nonchalantly fighting the traffix mix-ups which appeared to be worse than ever, unruffled, towered the Copper!

★ KEEP BUYING VICTORY BONDS ★

Time had, in the end, been kind to him. No denying that. I knew his voice and his mannerism was just as assertive and obnoxious as it ever was and he was just as self-opinionated as when he was lucky to have doughnuts and sinkers as a morning relish. He was stretched out on a chair in the Barber Shop of the St. Francis hotel. I was in the next chair getting my hair cut. It was difficult for me to remain silent when he got started. He had, by good luck and a lot of real natural ability, gotten a job on the big race tracks and was in the money up to his eyes now and, did he feel his oats! I heard him tell the barber he had wanted to go to Portland that day, but that he could not get "a room" on the Pullman. The only thing he could get was a "lower berth" and he could not ride in a lower! "The hell he couldn't," I thought to myself. I can remember when he used to swing under a freight. He was perfectly at home on the blind baggage and how lucky he would think himself, if the brakeman would only leave him alone in an empty on the rear of a freight! I don't mind seeing a fellow come up gracefully, but I hate to run onto a monkey putting on the Ritz so short a time after he has crawled out from under a freight.

★ KEEP BUYING VICTORY BONDS ★

I guess Friday was my bad day. The old-time track follower I had run onto in the barber shop in the morning gave whatever there is in me what it takes to make me dislike a four-flusher and put me in a sort of on the peck mood. I like to stand out in front of the Hotel St. Francis on the Powell street side and talk to the starters and bellboys when they are busy wrangling grips of the arriving and departing guests. I pick up a lot of bits of news that a fellow can work in a little story afterward. I had hardly gotten squared about in my favorite spot when I saw something that made me say to myself: "Yes, A. R., this is the Friday with the miserable moments for you." The front bumper of a big Cadillac almost rasped my shin. It was a handsome, expensive job and carried a Nevada license plate. A young-looking gray-haired man got out from behind the wheel. His whole makeup and his observing, steel-gray eyes reflected the fact he knew how many beans made four. He had been about and, as I looked him over, although his face carried a friendly expression, something told me, right off the bat, he was a high-roller. His woman companion got out. She was too modishly detailed in dress and had received too much attention from a hair stylist to be a home-lover. She said something to the Starter and he went to the rear of the machine and began taking out a lot of expensive luggage and ranging it on the sidewalk. Two bellboys came out and each grabbed a lot of the grips and suitcases. The gray-haired man went into action. He drew out a bundle of folding money from his front pocket and gave the Starter and each of the bell boys a dollar bill. My old friend the Starter winked at me and said: "A. R., there is your kind of a guy," and peeked the dollar bill the Nevadan had slipped him at me from between his fingers. I shook my head.

I do not like that type man, either.

It simply is not Cricket for a fellow to pass out dollar tips. It sets too high standard for me to try and follow. Ordinary fellows cannot afford to give more than 25 cents for a small service. I can still look back to the day when, as a good leg-man on eastern papers, I used to be tickled to death to get $30 a week as my pay check and not think my Boss was a so and so and so because he had a lot of money.

ABSENCE SOLVED

Chance discovery of the bodies of Frank Taber, of Covelo, and a soldier companion whose name is not known, solved the long absence of the pair missing since August 24. The bodies were come upon by deer hunters at the foot of a 600-foot bluff. Search for the missing pair had been made and the soldier, unreported, had been inquired about by the Army. They were found in the Dos Rios section.

KILN BURNED

The hop kiln on the Louis Johnson ranch, the old Horst property, was destroyed Saturday morning. How the fire started has not been determined. Fire apparatus from the State Hospital, the Ukiah Fire Department and the Forestry truck at Pieta were on hand and did fine work. The hops being dried at the time were lost, only. The kiln was an old one, used many years.

SALES TAX IS TO BE TILTED

Four Cents May Be Imposed And Division Made

There is hanging over the heads of Californians a tax in another form and it may well be said such a tax is almost certain to descend upon the public for a plan to increase the sales tax to four percent with a one percent rebate to cities and counties is receiving the "serious consideration" of the powerful County Supervisors Association, it was learned last week. Disclosure the plan was regarded as possibly the best way of relieving the financial plight of cities and counties came from Edward T. Mancuso, San Francisco supervisor, in testimony before the State Senate interim committee on state and local taxation. Supervisor Mancuso pointed out the current tax rate is now 2½ percent. It will return to the prewar level of three percent next summer unless the legislature takes action to change it.

Would Increase It.

"The County Supervisors Association is finding considerable support for a plan that would increase the state sales tax to four cents," Supervisor Mancuso said. "Three cents would go to the state. The yield from the remaining cent would be equally distributed to the cities and counties."

Public For It.

Mr. Mancuso said "public opinion favored raising additional local revenues by a sales tax, "on condition the revenue be earmarked for capital investments, not for operating expenses." Under the program, the tax would be collected and administered by the state, which would then return one-half of one percent to the counties and a like amount to the cities. Enactment of such a proposal would eliminate the necessity for individual city sales tax ordinances, already passed by a number of California communities.

CIO Against It.

Paul Schnur, secretary of the CIO council, said his organization was opposed both to the state sales tax and to any suggested city sales taxes.

Are Holding Hearings.

The state senate committee is conducting a series of state-wide hearings on the taxation problem, and its members are Ben Hulse, chairman, El Centro; Harry L. Parkman, San Mateo; Clarence C. Ward, Santa Barbara; Harold J. Powers, Engleville.

F. G. COLLETT, INDIAN ADVOCATE INVOLVED IN ALLEGED SHORTAGE?

Former Trusted Worker In Cause Of Natives Hereabouts Charged With Shortcomings In Handling Finances

MET SATURDAY

A large number of Indians of Northern California who are seeking reparations from the Government in the sum of from five million dollars upward in payment for land given to the Government years ago, gathered in the Supervisors rooms and responded to questions of members of a Legislative Committee seeking to aid in getting at the bottom of the Natives demands. Representatives of the Indians, in the main natives, stated their views of the proposed settlement. Considerable feeling was manifested by those attending against Frederick G. Collett.

Only recently news came out of Washington the Indians of Northern California were in line to get some $5,000,000 in payment for lands ceded or taken from the various tribes in early days.

Bad Rumors Afloat.

The distribution of this money was set to take place within the next 90 days. Now, however, there is at hand disconcerting press dispatches stating the Indians have been imposed upon, financially, by F. G. Collett, who long has been a trusted advocate of the cause of the Indians. The news came as a great surprise to people hereabouts. The Examiner's article covering the case says:

"An Assembly subcommittee received testimony today that California Indians have paid thousands of dollars in 'dues' to a Washington, D. C., representative, but have received little, if anything, in tangible returns.

"The representative was identified as F. G. Collett and documents listing him as 'executive representative, Indians of California, Inc.' and showing his address as 424 Senate Office Building, were entered in the record. The address is that of the Committee on Indian Affairs.

Huge Collections.

"'This man apparently has collected about $60,000 or $70,000 a year over a long period of time,' Committee Chairman Don Allen, of Los Angeles county, commented. 'We have testimony that he recently has received $1,300 a month. In addition, he has conducted dances, beauty contests and other events, and collected money for that.'

"Testimony that the Indians have received nothing tangible for their payments of many thousands of dollars came from Grover C. Sanderson, writer and lecturer of Orleans, Humboldt county, who charged the operation is 'a racket.'

"Mrs. Bertha Stewart, of Del Norte county, said she and others ceased 10 years ago to contribute to Collett's organization, but he still professes to represent 300 Smith River Indians.

"William Fuller, of Tuolumne, president of the California Federation of Indians, said he worked with Mr. Collett five years, but 'got tired of it and quit.' Although this occurred years ago, 'Collett uses my name all over the State as helping him," Mr. Fuller said.

"Dues" Charged.

"He said nine members of his family paid 'dues 'of $36 each in a lump sum, while others paid $6 a year. In addition Mr. Fuller said, when Collett first began his operations he frequently was housed, fed and clothed by Indians without charge. And 'I wore out one car carrying him all over the valley.'

"The meeting was called to hear the Indians' claim that the Federal Government owes them millions of dollars under an 1851-52 treaty which their ancestors assigned their rights to about three-quarters of California's land area to the Federal Government in exchange for food, equipment and land reservations. The Government later repudiated the treaties, taking title to the land without paying for it.

Settlements.

"When and if a settlement is made, Mrs. Stewart said, claims should not be adjudicated 'on the old, antiquated treaties, but on a new per capita basis formulated by a new commission.'

"Mr. Collett's name entered the proceedings again with submission of a Congressional bill which would authorize the court of claims to allow appropriate fees to attorneys 'or others' in the event of a cash settlement.

"'The only thing lacking in that bill,' commented Assemblyman John W. Wivans, of Los Angeles, 'is Collett's name'."

FELL UPON THE REVOLVING SAW

Coast Operator Met Frightful Death In His Plant

A horrifying accident occurred in a small mill east of Greenwood Thursday afternoon when Raymond Elright, operator of the mill, fell on the 50-inch circular saw. Mr. Elright attempted to slide the end of a log on the log deck when he slipped and fell on the rapidly revolving saw.

Cut Almost In Half.

The saw caught the unfortunate man above the hips, severed his backbone, and all but cut him in two. He died within a few minutes but not before he said: "Take care of my wife and baby."

Not Here Long.

Mr. Elright had operated mills in South Dakota, and had come to California from that state. He had a scar on his arm near the shoulder where he had been badly cut one other time by a saw.

Shipped Mill Here.

The injured man like many others had been impressed by the unusual demand for lumber in the west and had shipped out his mill from South Dakota and set it up on the William Isaac's place, which is located east of the Smith ranch north of Greenwood. Mr. Elright was sole owner of the mill, which employed about six men.

WOULD ASSIST NOYO HARBOR

Senator Jack Shelley Is Anxious To Aid Coast Needs

(Fort Bragg Advocate)

Senator John F. Shelley, of San Francisco, chairman of the California Senate Committee on Harbors and Navigation, was in Fort Bragg Tuesday for the first meeting scheduled to meet in five other coastal cities of the state during September and October.

Those On Committee.

Other members of the committee are Arthur Breed, Alameda county, vice-chairman; Earl Desmond of Sacramento county, Clarence Ward of Santa Barbara county and Fred Weybret of Monterey county.

Where Shelley Stands.

Prior to coming here, Senator Shelley stated: "The expansion and development of commercial navigation forms an important part of California's economy which has been seriously neglected in past years. Not only the coastal cities, but inland areas and the entire state as a whole has suffered the loss of countless millions of dollars in seaborne commerce because of the failure to maintain and improve port facilities and encourage shipping to California's many harbors."

Delegation Called.

At the meeting held at the Community Club at 10 o'clock, Senator Shelley was met by Vernon Johnson, secretary of the Fort Bragg Chamber of Commerce, Frank Hyman, of the United Fish Company; Bud Ellison, of the City Council; Kenneth Couckwell and Capt. Nelson, of the Fisherman's Local; A. E. Johnson, Attorney; Norman Johnson, Ray Welch, chairman of the Harbor Commission, and Dave Guisti, of The Advocate and News.

Went To Noyo.

The needs of Noyo Harbor and river were presented and discussed and later Senator Shelley was taken out by boat to view the harbor and river mouth.

UKIAH MAN GUILTY

Settlement out of court of a claim for charging over-ceiling prices for a used automobile was announced by the Northern California District OPA last week: Ira H. Whitton, 107 State street, Ukiah, $1,294 for the sale of a 1942 Buick sedanette.

Rev. Donatus Ahern was in Ukiah Wednesday evening for a visit at St. Mary's Parish House.

HELP OUT S. A.

The Salvation Army truck will be in Ukiah Tuesday, September 10. Please drop a card to the Ukiah postoffice and they will pick up the cards. The Salvation Army will be glad of any miscellaneous articles you might have to give the poor. The Salvation Army is particularly in need of old clothing and furniture.

CANDIDATE IN CITY WEEKEND

Seeking Attorney Generalship, Aspirant Sees Many

Edmund G. Brown, District Attorney of San Francisco and candidate for State Attorney General, went back to his San Francisco headquarters after completing a victorious swing of Northern California where he was feted in a series of meetings by joint committees of Republicans and Democrats.

District Attorney Edmund G. Brown out for election as Attorney General

His Stay Here.

Mr. Brown got in from Eureka Saturday and passed some time in Ukiah, visiting local people and getting acquainted with Mendocino county folk, both in town and while about the northern section of the county after having been in Humboldt county. Mr. Brown met many Mendocino County residents who promise to support him. District Attorney Brown, before being elected in San Francisco as that county's prosecuting attorney, was a member of the Board of Directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District and on the trip was accompanied by Daniel F. Del Carlo, who is also and has been for years, a Director of the Golden Gate Bridge District and at present is Vice-President of that body. Mr. Del Carlo is a member of Mayor Roger Lapham's official family, being a member of the San Francisco Utilities Commission.

WILLITS, Sept. 2.—The tempest raised by the clash between our police department and a majority of the city council is still boiling and the more it is stirred the worse the aroma is. Monday night the council held a special meeting and Councilman Ford offered a motion the council hire back all four police officers who have tendered their resignations. The motion was seconded by Councilman Peterson and those two voted for it and Councilmen Ells, Gray and Hall against it.

The Press Wrong.

In a story last week The Republican Press stated people were wondering why the lowest bid for repairing the streets of Willits had not been accepted! In the query, figures given this newspaper were incorrect. The fact is the lowest bid as, accepted, was almost $3,000 under any other and the city trustees, accordingly, acted along proper business lines.

Two Officers Apply.

Another special meeting was held Wednesday night at which two San Francisco men applied for the position of police officers but no action was taken. The following petition was circulated about town Thursday and signed by 78 citizens: "We, the undersigned, respectfully request that you retain the present police department."

Bid For Bonds.

At the meeting Monday night the city council received bids for the purchase of $75,000 in municipal bonds. Three bids were received and R. H. Moulton & Co. of San Francisco was highest. That concern bid two percent on the entire issue with a premium of $515, plus accrued interest to date of delivery.

To Cancel Contract.

The garbage situation has been a headache some months and the city council has voted to cancel the present garbage contract with E. St. Louis, on the grounds he has broken the terms of the contract. Will May has been ordered to clean up his premises on California street.

Veterans Night School.

A special course in agriculture is being held every Wednesday night for Veterans and a class of 10 or more has been signed up. It is sponsored by the Veterans Administration and is open to all honorably discharged veterans who wish to take up farming. They are enrolled under the terms of the bill of rights and can draw subsistence allowance.

Sold The Tract.

Recently Ralph Padula, of Los Angeles, purchased a large holding northeast of the depot with the intention of building a mill on the property. Last week he sold this property to the Pre-

ANDERSON VALLEY, Sept. 2. — Anderson Valley was represented at the Paul Bunyan celebration in Fort Bragg by a float decorated with Anderson Valley apples and hops and carried a group of young folks in pioneer dress and furnished music enroute. Signs on the float advertised the Mendocino County Fair and Apple Show being held here October 4, 5 and 6. Mrs. Velma Farrer had charge of the float and was assisted by Russell Miller. Both are on the high school faculty. The group that rode on the float also helped with its decoration and the truck was furnished by Judge H. J. June and driven by his son.

To Eliminate Exchange.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company workmen commenced work August 27 here on the dial system which they expect to have installed for service here within 45 days. Some of the workmen expressed opinion the work would be completed before that time. The local station was completed some time ago. When the dial system is installed the local exchange will be discontinued and long distance calls will be made by dialing the Cloverdale office where a dial phone will be added to the switchboard to handle Anderson Valley calls. According to reports Cloverdale's system will remain as it is. Local calls will be dialed without contacting the Cloverdale office. The Telephone company is allowing subscribers to turn in their present telephones in exchange for the new dial phones and pay a small installation charge.

Two Exceptions Made.

Hopland and this valley are understood to be the only places in this county being given dial phones at this time.

Fine Talk On Mexico.

The Philo Ladies Aid held a bazaar and tea Thursday afternoon at the church, from which was realized a nice little sum to add to the church fund. The ladies had a display of fancy work and delicious refreshments were served. An interesting feature of the afternoon was the travelog on Mexico given by Mrs. Velma Farrer, who recently returned from Mexico City where she attended summer school at the National University. Mrs. Farrer has been invited to talk on her trip to Mexico at one of the early meetings of the Anderson Valley Unity Club and has chosen for her topic an entirely different subject than the one discussed at the church Thursday. Judging by comments heard after the tea Thursday many of the ladies will want to hear her again and will plan to attend the Club meeting when she is on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stathem, of Fresno, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Deady Farrer. Mrs. Farrer and Mr. Stathem are cousins.

To Visit Old Land.

Mrs. Robert McAllister, of Signal, and her daughter, Miss Ramona McAllister, of San Francisco, left August 24 for a three weeks' visit in Chihuahua, Mexico, where they will be guests of Mrs. McAllister's sister. This is Mrs. McAllister's first visit to her native land since she left there 28 years ago. Miss McAllister is employed at the American Can Co. in San Francisco. She had a two weeks' vacation coming and secured an extra week to be able to take her mother to Mexico for a vacation trip.

Dr. Sohler, of Cloverdale, was called here on professional business during the past week.

Strangely Afflicted.

Elbert Tolman, ex-serviceman, went to San Francisco Saturday for an examination at Fort Miley Veterans' Hospital. He drives a truck and about a week ago took a nap beside his truck near where he is hauling ties, from Peachland. He awoke to find his right arm limp and useless. He has consulted several doctors, but they do not agree as to cause. One suspected a rattlesnake bite as causing the damage, but another had a different idea. Mr. Tolman is making the trip to ascertain the cause, if possible.

RACE ISSUE IS SMOULDERING

MEMBERS OF 14 OF 19 CHICO churches last Sunday took what they described as "the first step" in a movement to prevent the advent of racial discrimination in Chico. In voice resolutions and in some cases by a "show of hands" the church-goers endorsed an open letter asking merchants to remove "White Trade Only" signs from their windows.

It was a gratifying movement on the part of the churches and their members. However, the fruits of the "first step" will be naught unless the public accepts the example set Sunday and acts in a way to make it possible for the restaurant owners and business men to remove their "White Trade Only" signs. Chico merchants have explained the signs were not put up out of malice, or out of any personal leaning toward racial discrimination. "My sign went up," one man said, "because my white customers indicated that they would not trade with me if I served Negro customers. I've got thousands of dollars invested here, and I must form my policies to suit the majority of my customers. I don't like the sign," he pleaded, "but what can I do?"

That explanation is true in the majority of cases. What can the business man do if the public — by direct action or by implication — sets forth such an ultimatum?

Therefore, only through a city-wide movement at Chico can the "White Trade Only" question be settled in a manner that will prove equally satisfactory for the business men, the white population and the colored residents and the laborers who have come to the Chico area to aid in the harvest.

The church-goers Sunday suggested Chico citizens get behind the movement and "let your business man know that you will not discriminate against him if he allows persons of all races, creeds and colors to patronize his place of business.

"Tell the business man," the church-goers declared, "to go ahead and remove his 'sign' and rest assured his business will not suffer."

"It would appear that such a heart-felt declaration removed the responsibility from the shoulders of the proprietors and placed it squarely on the shoulders of the purchasing public," The Chico Enterprise comments, concluding: "The next few days will reveal whether or not the public wishes to accept or cast off the responsibility. It is not a question of personal preference or an acclimation of philosophies. As one of the proponents of yesterday's letter said, 'It is a question of Americanism and Christianity'."

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

(By Lloyd Lapham)

ORDINARILY THE CONTEST for Lieutenant Governor in the November election would rate behind the contests for two other major state offices. But, this year, it rates ahead of U. S. Senator and Attorney General campaigns in the opinion of many observers. The reason, of course, is that many expect Governor Earl Warren to be a national candidate in 1948 when two years of his second term are still to run. If a Democrat is elected Lieutenant Governor, Californians wouldn't like to see the Governor bow out and his party lose control of the State government. And the presence of a Democrat in the Lieutenant Governor's chair might lessen Warren's "availability" in the eyes of Republicans throughout the nation. So the campaign battle between John F. Shelley, Democratic Senator from San Francisco and an AFL labor leader, and Goodwin J. Knight, of Los Angeles, a former superior judge, takes on an importance given to few such contests. Democrats, too, are placing high importance on the race. Warren knocked their candidate, Attorney General Robert W. Kenny, out in the primary. Electing a Democrat to sit in the Governor's chair in the event of Warren's resignation, would partially pay off the score. In the primary, not always a very accurate indication of the final vote, the total vote given each man was very close, with Knight holding an edge. On both Republican and Democratic tickets, Knight got 683,000 votes to 662,000 for Shelley. Preliminary odds have been quoted in San Francisco of even money that Knight wins by 100,000 votes. Even more than in other races, the outcome depends upon the southern California vote. Shelley, president of the San Francisco Labor Council (AFL), concededly will run well ahead in highly organized northern California. His chances, then, depend on whether he can partially overcome Knight's residence and wider acquaintance in southern California, where, too, labor organizations are not so strong.

IT NEVER FAILS

MORE DETAILS ABOUT CLOVERDALE INDUSTRY

(The Cloverdale Reveille)

Over last weekend, Cloverdale was visited by four representatives of the proposed new lumber mill and lumber products industries. Messrs. Crowfoot, Carlson, Burke and Johnson, representing various phases of the projects, spent considerable time cruising timberlands to the north and inspecting mill and factory sites at the river. In discussing the over-all plans with local parties, additoinal information was given en as follows' The contemplated plywood factory would probably equal in size the plant located in Tacoma, Washington, said to be the largest in the country; and that the factory will be co-operatively operated by the same interests as the Tacoma plant. Dismantling of the mill in Oregon is nearing completion and at the proper time will be shipped by barge to Napa and brought to Cloverdale by truck. As soon as the mill is set up, lumber will be cut and planed to dimension to provide housing for employes. Preliminary negotiations are under way for grading the 80-acre multiple industry site. Property line surveys at the site are being awaited preparatory to final acquisition of the land from the various parties east of town adjacent to the river.

BOY MURDERER CAUGHT

Alertness upon the part of Deputy Sheriff Lee Roberts last week resulted in the capture of a 16-year-old escapee from the detentoin home at Ukiah. The youth, Thomas Landon, was being held in the Ukiah institution upon a charge of having shot and killed his stepfather following an argument at the Landon home. Young Landon, formerly a patient in the juvenile section of the Napa State Hospital, was recognized by Officer Roberts as he was walking down Third street in Napa.

Press Wantads have repeatedly proven sure-fire result getters.

HOP PICKER SHORTAGE CAUSED SONOMA LOSS

Handling the hop crop in Sonoma county has encountered labor shortages as well as have the growers in Mendocino county. Reports from that county state the Healdsburg Farm Labor office, which serves that area, said 1,000 pickers were needed immediately to help harvest the 1,250-acre fields in northern Sonoma county. Wage rates for the entire section, including Mendocino county, were set at 3½ cents a pound, although there was a provision for increased wages with the approval of a county board. (It is said in some instances four cents a pound was paid for picking hops.) No hop growers in Sonoma county, it was indicated, had applied to raise wages. Pickers were said to be leaving the fields, declaring they could not make enough money. They said that, in former years, they were able to pick 500 pounds of hops per day but this year they were able to pick only 150 pounds. Pickers said the growers were insisting on "clean hops."

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, while chairman of the State Board of Prisons of California

MY "UNJUST" STAND WAS HUMANE

This morning's city papers brought back to me news of an incident happening 10 years ago at the Prison for Women at Tehachapi in which I was called upon to take a stand in two famous murder cases involving two female killers. At the moment I was censured for what I did, but time has demonstrated I was right in both instances. On that day 10 years ago the case of Nellie Madison, under sentence of death for having shot and killed her husband, while the later was lunging toward her with a butcher knife came up first. The Madison case was one of the most open-and-shut trials in which self-defense was apparent, but not brought out, I ever saw. The function of the Prison Board that day was not to actually do anything with Mrs. Madison's case, but to determine whether to set aside a fund to erect a gallows at Tehachapi, on which to hang the condemned woman, or have Mrs. Madison executed at San Quentin. I contended Mrs. Madison should not be hanged but that, rather, she should be reprieved. That same afternoon I visited Mrs. Madison, along with then Warden James Holohan, of San Quentin, in her condemned cell and I told her I would do all I could to get her a reprieve. Immediately afterward I went to Governor Frank F. Merriam, one of the most human and understanding Governors I have ever had anything to do with, and pleaded for Mrs. Madison with him. Governor Merriam told me he did not intend to let Mrs. Madison be executed but he directed I, in no manner, let the public know what he intended doing. I kept his faith. Two days before the date set for Mrs. Madison's execution The Associated Press called me at midnight and told me Governor Merriam had reprieved her. From then on I made a fight for the parole of Mrs. Madison. I sent her small sums of commissary money while she was a prisoner and eventually, she was paroled. Mrs. Madison properly conducted herself while on parole and a number of years ago she married and is living happily in a southern city now. Every year at Easter I get a card from her and at Christmas there always comes a Yuletide greeting from her. My horseback opinion is Nellie Madison, had she been properly defended at her trial, would not have been convicted.

The next case to come before the Prison Directors that day was that of Louise Peete. Mrs. Peete had, cold-bloodedly, gone to the home of a wealthy man named Jacob Denton with whom she had been carrying on a clandestine love affair and, as she talked with Mr. Benton across a table, Mrs. Peete shot him through the head, dragged Mr. Denton's body to the basement of the home in which he lived, alone, dug a hole near the furnace in the cellar floor, buried the corpse in a shallow grave and shoveled coal and lime over it. She was detected when she forged deeds to several pieces of property Mr. Denton owned and sought to claim his estate. Relatives, suspecting something wrong, investigated, discovered the body and brought about the prosecution and conviction of Mrs. Peete. For some reason or other the jury trying Mrs. Peete, instead of convicting her of murder in the first degree, set her sentence at 50 years, and she was appearing before the Prison Board for a reduction of sentence at the time I write about. I opposed a cut in Mrs. Peete's term, as I felt certain she was a dangerous woman to be at liberty. She had a bad criminal record, with which I was familiar, and I refused to go along with her request. It would have been well for Louise Peete, if those who followed me on the Prison Board had held as I did. Six years ago Mrs. Peete was paroled and she was not out long before she again committed a murder. Mrs. Peete, for having murdered Jacob Denton, was paroled to Mrs. Margaret Logan and Mrs. Peete 18 months after being paroled to her, murdered Mrs. Logan and buried her body in the flower garden of Mrs. Logan's home. She was convicted of this murder and the news to which I referred at the start of this ctory was Mrs. Peete had been sentenced to die in the gas chamber at San Quentin, Friday, November first.

Mrs. Peete did 18 years of the 50-year sentence, which I insisted should not be reduced, for having killed Jacob Denton.

Had my views been carried out, she would not now be entering the gas chamber.

After the stand I took against Mrs. Peete's liberation she considered me her enemy—In reality I was her real friend, as facts afterwards proved.

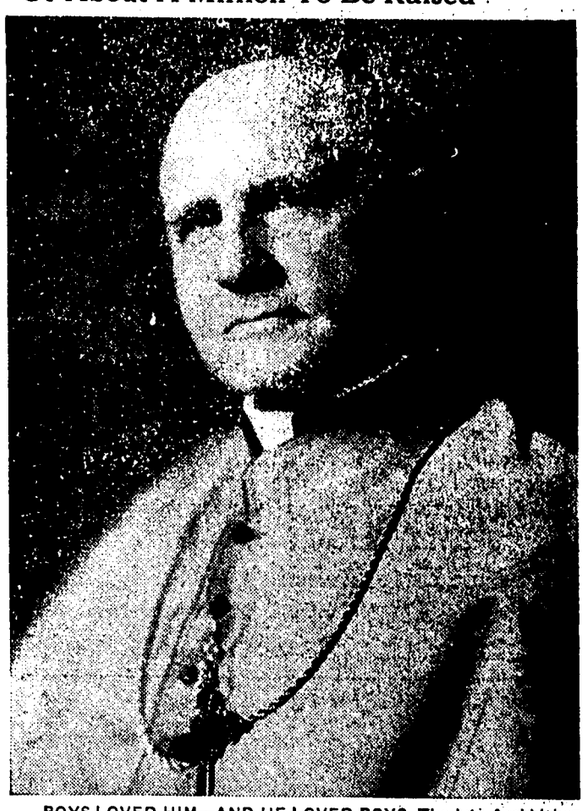
DRIVE FOR HANNA HOME SOON TO BE STARTED—WHAT AIM IS

Shelter For Youngsters Will Probably Be Located Near Danville In This State—A Fund Of About A Million To Be Raised



BOYS LOVED HIM—AND HE LOVED BOYS. The late Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, in whose memory a $975,000 building fund will soon be launched to erect a center for boys from broken homes. The new institution will be one of the finest in the nation. Prominent Catholics in this county are now organizing for the appeal.

Plans are practically complete for the launching of an appeal to raise funds for the erection of a new Archbishop Edward J. Hanna Center for Boys, it was announced last week. Prominent Catholic leaders of the county are rapidly completing organization for the appeal opening September 16 during which this county will join with seven other counties of the Archdiocese in a campaign to raise $975,000. Each county and parish has accepted a fair share of the total. The counties surrounding San Francisco Bay will seek their fair share of the total when their appeals open November 18.

Site For Home.

It is now certain the new center will be situated near Danville. The campaign committee has looked at several sites and the final decision will be based upon availability of water and other utilities.

Is Badly Needed.

The million dollar center will care for boys from broken homes from all sections of the Archdiocese. A small center has been in operation at Menlo Park the past year and a half. The results achieved in rehabilitating youngsters led to the decision to conduct the coming appeal for a larger institution. The capacity of the present center is 24, while the projected institution will accommodate 125. The appeal has the full support of His Excellency Archbishop John J. Mitty, who described the new center as "an essential if we are to protect the homeless youngsters against the temptations of delinquency."

FORMER EDITOR AND WIFE GO ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wells, of Cloverdale, left Thursday for a long-planned trip up Redwood highway to Portland. In Portland they will visit in the home of Miss Helen Clarke, who has been visiting them in Cloverdale for two weeks. The Wells have been wanting to take a vacation since the first of the year when they sold The Reveille and Geyserville Press, but they remained in the city, giving a very helpful hand to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simmons at the newspaper office.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Stella Borella passed away in a local hospital the afternoon of August 29. Mrs. Borella has been a resident of this community more than 26 years, formerly being a resident of San Francisco. Deceased is the widow of Bernardo Borella and leaves two sons, Roy, of South San Francisco, and William, of Burlingame. A blessing was said in the Ormsbee Chapel Monday morning, September 2, at 11 o'clock and interment in the Catholic cemetery.

W. A. Malson.

William Alva Malson passed away at the home of his son, John Malson, of Calpella, the evening of August 28. Mr. Malson, a resident of Sacramento, came here to visit and was taken ill. He leaves a wife, Ida Malson, and two sons, John Malson, of Calpella, and a daughter, Fannie Mae Malson, of Sacramento. Funeral services were held in the Ormsbee Chapel Sunday afternoon, September 1, at two o'clock, with services of the Latter Day Saints church. Mrs. Jack Edgar accompanied the soloist at the organ. Interment was in the Ukiah cemetery.

Leonora Richardson.

Mrs. Leonora Richardson, many years a faithful employe of Mendocino State Hospital, was laid to rest Wednesday, August 28. Services were held in the Ormsbee Chapel at 10:30 with Rev. E. H. Benson officiating and Mrs. Jack Edgar at the pipe organ. Mrs. Richardson leaves a daughter, Mrs. Francis K. Ross, of Mill Valley, and two sons, Eric Richardson, of Fresno, and Joseph, of Oakland. The pallbearers for Mrs. Richardson were Ray Foster, Rex Parker, Jack Brinkerhoff, Henry Lee, Orville Hull and Frank Killespie. Interment was in the Phelps lot in Ukiah cemetery.

Mrs. Rovella Holmes.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 for Mrs. Rovella Holmes, who was killed Sunday evening in a wreck on the South Highway near the Boonville road. The services were held in the family home on the River road and a blessing was said at the graveside at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Holmes leaves a daughter, Linda Faria, of Lakeport, a granddaughter, Gloria Knight, and two brothers, Alfred Berryses, of Talmage, and George Berryses, of Ukiah, and a sister, Mildred Gomez, of Lakeport.

Maude Blake Smith.

Mrs. Maude Blake Smith passed away Saturday. Deceased was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Glazier. Mrs. Smith was born on Glazier street south of Ukiah, March 3, 1873. She leaves a sister, Mrs. M. Hines, of Chicago, and a brother, Harry Glazier, of Lakeview, Oregon. Wesley M. Tottingham, of the Christian church and Rev. Elbert Holland officiated and Mrs. Smith was interred in Potter Valley cemetery.

"So the People May Know"

COVELO, Sept. 2. — Round Valley needs an active Game Warden.

During the past few years this section of the county has been credited with having an enormous deer population, and usually with the opening of the deer season almost every resident had some friends come to go hunting.

While the war was on, no one traveled much, and gas and tires were equally hard to get, but the deferred hunting piled up a number of hunters, only a few of whom were veterans, but who came into Covelo by hundreds. Some bought horses and camp outfits, almost all had from one to three dogs, and they camped anywhere and everywhere they could from the dust beside the road to the high pastures of the cattlemen, east of the valley.

There were many camped at the Ranger Station, 12 miles away in the National Forest, and these conducted themselves properly, because they were under supervision of the Forest personnel, realizing the danger from camp fires.

But the bulk of those hunters, who would be horrified at the thought of any country friends moving in on them in their homes without permission for indefinite stays, calmly drove on to places where they had heard there was good hunting, camped, made fires, some of which got away, and shot indiscriminately after dark, used spotlights and killed several does which left little fawns to starve.

Some of these misdeeds were reported to the Game Warden at Willits but nothing was done to control the situation. Some sheep were shot and many dogs ran from morning to night. This intolerable condition still prevails, and probably will continue until the close of the deer season.

This has been a hard feed year and is likely to be more so, if grass is burned. It doesn't do stock any good either, to be run by dogs and have shots fired among them.

People wonder why so many ranches are closed to public hunting. It is because the public, when it puts on its hunting togs, cartridge belts and skinning knives, leaves common courtesy at home, along with respect for the rights of others.

We like deer in Round Valley. When they venture out near a spring in the cool of the evening, and we can count them and watch them as they go about their dainty feeding, we talk about them next day. We know that bucks eventually must be cut up into hams and backstraps, but we know, too, that a race which destroys its mothers must ultimately go without venison. Our gardens and orchards help to raise the deer but relatively few of the ranchers benefit by it. When the season is on, they are too busy to hunt, and it can't be done in wintertime.

Why should we entertain a thankless raft of strangers who shoot and burn and run dogs and knock down fences, and kill does? Several does have been found. A good game warden could help us.

The above and other indignities have been heaped on the people on the east side of the valley.

STRIKERS ARE EXTENDING AN INTIMIDATION

Secondary Boycott Is Being Resorted To In Marin County

DECLARE LUMBER HOT

Want Product Of Only Small Mills Used In Building

Special Correspondence of The Press

FORT BRAGG, Sept. 2.—In The San Rafael Independent the following news story appeared last week. It provides a sidelight on the Redwood lumber strike which had not, so far, been taken into consideration, but which, it is intimated, may prove a big factor in a strike which has been in progress the past six months. The Independent article reads: "Issue of 'hot' lumber which precipitated the intermittent picketing of three Marin county lumber yards for a week past today developed a new angle—one which may tie up home building indefinitely. Contractors are served with notice that used redwood or spruce lumber from any of the struck mills in the Redwood Empire area will cause carpenters and other craftsmen to walk off the job after all materials now laid down are used. George Scott, President of the Building Trades Council, said lumber from the 14 struck mills, all of them of the larger plants where there have been labor disputes dating back to last January, are considered 'hot' but that redwood and spruce from 200-odd mills which have not been struck can be used by union men.

COAST NEWSPAPER DAMAGED BY FIRE

A fire was discovered in the Advocate News office at Fort Bragg about nine o'clock Thursday evening by State Theatre Manager Hoble and David Giust and Ernest Karvinen, of the newspaper's force who, upon passing, were called to and hurried in and battled the flames, which had hardly gotten under way, with fire extinguishers until the Fire Department arrived, and quickly put out the blaze. Considerable damage was done, principally by water, but the equipment will be back in working order today, and the paper will come out as usual next Wednesday.

Celebration Proving Popular.

The Paul Bunyan Junior three-day celebration is proving to be much better than was at first anticipated. The weather was perfect and this was probably the last chance numerous city people will have to take an outling. All of the scheduled events were as advertised and an unusually large crowd was here.

More Money For Fishermen.

Last week the OPA raised the ceiling price on salmon 12½ percent and this will mean much to Noyo fishermen. It was announced the raise would add four cents to a can of pink salmon and six cents to Alaska red salmon.

Relied On Judge's Mercy.

John Bundte, who was arrested here recently on a battery charge and first asked for a jury trial, changed his mind and last week entered a plea of guilty and was fined $50.

George Nichols and family enjoyed last week in San Francisco.

New Store Building Is Large.

The modern new fireproof building being erected by Shafsky Bros. on the site of the old store some months ago swept by fire, is now well advanced in construction. The walls, and front are in, and the steel girders and floor for the second story have been placed. The building, reaching from Main street to the rear street is a big structure and will

LOCAL MEMBER IS HONORED AT BIG AFFAIR

Five years have passed since the California Department of the American Legion Auxiliary held its last annual convention, but on August 24, 25 and 26 about 1,500 delegates from all parts of the State gathered in Sacramento to plan another year of service. Mrs. Frederick Heartt, of Pasadena, presided during the session. There were hundreds of American flags and blue and gold Auxiliary banners forming the background in the Sacramento Memorial Auditorium. The red banner of the national organization, presented to the past National President, Mrs. Alfred Mathebat, at the conclusion of her term of office, preceded the white banner of the State Auxiliary when the colors were advanced, which was a beautiful sight. Those returning from the convention last week were Jane Isnard, First Vice District President, Anna Moore and Minnie Sweeney, Delegates of this Unit. There was a large representation there of District One. Ada Hanna, of Ferndale, was installed District President and Jane Isnard, of Ukiah, First Vice-President. Jane Isnard was presented a beautiful corsage. Junior Past District President Ellen Taylor, of Fort Bragg, and the District members also presented Ellen Taylor and Ada Hanna a lovely corsage. All officers were installed by Mrs. Alfred Mathebat, Past National President.

The social side of the meeting included a delegate dinner at The Hotel Senator and a "Past Presidents' Parley Breakfast" and a tea at the Crocker Art Gallery.

Elise Figone accompanied the group to Sacramento and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duffy, formerly of Ukiah. Mrs. Figone attended the tea and installation of officers.

RIFFE FAMILIES GATHER IN CLAN'S REUNION

A family reunion that may be of interest to a number of people of this county was that of the Riffe family at Mosswood Park, Oakland, Sunday, August 25. Four sisters and two brothers, who were daughters and sons of the late James and Elizabeth Riffe, early residents of Round Valley, met for a picnic at Mosswood Park. It was the first time the six children had all been together in 26 years.

Those present were Ethel (Riffe) Hargrave and her husband and daughters, and from Covelo came Clyde Riffe and his wife ,Georgia. Two daughters, Roberta and Barbara, with their husbands and children, joined them from the bay area. Lester Riffe and his wife, Helen, and their son, Fred, and his wife and children came up from Hollister. Another son, Norman, and his wife and two children joined them from Walnut Creek. Lorena (Riffe) Plummer made the long trip from Colton to be with her brothers and sisters for the occasion. Loretta (Riffe) Bessire and her children, Lois and Wayne and a little granddaughter, all of Santa Rosa were present. Lorna and Loretta are twin sisters. And from Ukiah Bertha (Riffe) Zeek went and her daughters, Evelyn and Erma, and their husbands, and a granddaughter, all from the bay area, joined her there.

To complete the reunion, an aunt, Mrs. Katie Burdy, and two cousins, Mrs. Clara Black and Bertha Briggs, of Hollister, joined the group.

There were 38 people present and from the oldsters down to the third generation it was a happy day.

Mrs. Gretchen Kirwin and daughters Nancy and Joan were in Ukiah from their home in San Francisco, enjoying a trip up Redwood Highway and calling on Ukiah friends.

COMPTCHE RANCH IS SOLD FOR $32,500

The Jack Olson ranch on the Mendocino-Comptche road west of Comptche, better known as the Skiffinton ranch, has this week been sold to Frank Tunzi, rancher and contractor of Kings City. It will be remembered Mr. and Mrs. Jack Olson purchased the Skiffington ranch two years ago and later acquired the adjoining 73-acre Makela farm. Mr. and Mrs. Olson, now in Nevada, expect to locate business interests in that State.

STAG DINNER TONIGHT BY VETERANS

Louis White Post No. 76, American Legion, is holding a stag dinner this evening, September 4, at 7 o'clock in the Veterans' Memorial Building. Ferd Faas is chairman. There will be nomination and election of officers at the meeting starting 8 p. m. The Mill Valley Drill Team will be here to initiate a large class of World War II veterans. Invitations have been extended to Hopland and Willits Posts to attend.

WENT FOR DAUGHTER

Mrs. V. D. Hillman, following having been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Coleman here the past two weeks, departed Saturday for her home at Lodi and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman at the end of the week went to Lodi for their daughter, Lynette Coleman, who has been a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hillman, in the southern city. The family returned to the city the first of the week.

HAD HOLIDAY GUESTS

Mrs. G. W. Stout and Mrs. Ida L. Brown enjoyed a visit over Labor Day from their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gard, of San Jose, who recently returned from a motor trip east and on to Quebec, Canada, taking two months for the journey, which they greatly enjoyed.

Pickles and relishes that are easy to make
One of the easiest of all canning jobs—and one that will bring just about the most pleasure during the winter months—is to make plenty of pickles and relishes. Here are two old favorites.
BREAD AND BUTTER PICKLES
2½ pounds small cucumbers (about 25)
2⅔ pounds medium-size onions (about 8)
1 quart vinegar
2 cups sugar
2 teaspoons celery seed
2 teaspoons tumeric
1 teaspoon dry mustard
½ cup salt
Wash cucumbers; slice; peel onions and slice. Soak separately overnight in cold water; drain. In large kettle combine remaining ingredients. Bring to boil. Pour over cucumbers and onions; let stand 1 hour; bring to boil. Boil 3 minutes. Pack into hot sterilized jars; seal at once. Makes 6 pints.
TOMATO-FRUIT CHILI
2 pounds peaches (about 6 large)
2 pounds pears (about 6 large)
2 pounds onions (about 6 medium-size)
2 buds garlic
¾ pound green peppers (about 3 large)
8½ pounds tomatoes (about 30 medium-size)
3 cups sugar
1 quart vinegar
1½ tbsps. allspice
1 tbsp. salt
Peel peaches, pears, and onions; chop. Seed green peppers; chop. Scald tomatoes; peel; chop. Mince garlic. In large kettle, combine all ingredients. Cook slowly about 2 hours, or until thick, stirring occasionally. Pour into hot sterilized jars; seal at once. Makes 8 pints.

CLOTHING WAS MYSTERY TALE FOR FULL DAY

Many Stories Used In Explanation Of Ownership

SEEN AND VANISHED

Owner A Suicide Was Version!—Likelihood A Drunk

(Carried from Page One)

They motored from Dallas, Texas, where they live. Mrs. McCreary is the mother of Myrl Harpe. The guests are accompanied by Mrs. C. B. Guinn, who hails from Friona, Texas. She is aunt to Mrs. Myrl Harpe and this is their first trip to California.

Have A Boy.

A little son has arrived in the James Williams home near Sebastopol. He weighed six and three-quarters pounds at birth and has been named Neal Davis Williams. This is their first child.

Has Returned East.

George Karas, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kay, of Valley Oaks Farms, who has been passing the summer vacation at the Kay home, returned to New York Tuesday, where he will resume his college education. George, with his pleasing personality, made many friends while here and expressed hope that, some time, he may come back to beautiful Sanel Valley.

To Be Handicapped.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woodworth and family have moved to Ukiah as the home they occupied here has been sold. Mr. Woodworth, as principal of the local high school, will be forced to commute each school day to his home and office. The regrettable fact is there are no houses to rent in Hopland.

She Has Resigned.

Rounding out 15 years of service in the Caspar elementary school, Mrs. Eva Rice tendered her resignation and accepted a similar position in Hopland elementray school. Mrs. Inez Philbrick, sister of Mrs. Rice, also teaches in the grammar grades—an instructor much beloved by all the students.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Goodman and family arrived from San Francisco to pass a week's vacation at the Tom Goodman home parents of Otis.

Were At Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shimmin passed the Labor Day weekend at their Redwood Dell Camp, north of Willits. Sunday they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shimmin and son, Gary, from Ukiah.

Lost Savings.

Mrs. Ann Reeder, cook at Pomo Inn, was robbed of about $90 Friday night. The thief got into the room by crawling through a transom and took the money from a cigar box in which Mrs. Reeder had placed it, while Mrs. Reeder was asleep. Indications pointed to the fact the thief was someone connected with the hotel and knew Mrs. Reeder's habits.

Helped At Bank.

Mrs. Ada Osborne has been assisting Mr. Shimmin at the local bank where the work has been unusually heavy. Mrs. Osborne is a former employe of the Bank in Ukiah.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baer were recent summer guests at the Thomas Glatt ranch.

Baby Is Named.

The little son, born Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown, of East Sanel, has been named Daniel Leo Brown. He has three sisters and two brothers to welcome him.

Mrs. Jack Rose, of San Francisco was a recent weekend visitor at the Rose home in East Sanel.

Health Is Bad.

Due to ill health Felix Ford, the proprietor of Ford's Restaurant, the establishment is closed. The family contemplates a change of residence to northern California, near Eureka.

Have Returned Home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wenger and sons, Donald and Richard, who motored from Underwood, North Dakota, to visit Frank Wenger, a brother, returned to their home last week. This was their first trip to California.

Mystery Clothes Pile.

A pair of men's oxfords, almost new, and other masculine apparel, placed near the railing in the center of the concrete bridge spanning Russian river on the road to Lake county, were the objects of much conjecture and concern on the part of Sanel Valley residents Wednesday evening. It looked as though some unhappy migrant had removed all clothing and, climbing across the bridge guard rail, jumped to a watery grave. Thursday morning the neat pile of clothes had also disappeared. Some said the sheriff's office having been notified of the mystery had sent an officer from Ukiah and taken the clothes back for investigation. This, however, is only one of many wild rumors. A reporter's guess is the clothing had been too heavy a burden for some hop picker while under "the influence." It was left upon the bridge as the owner found a shady spot to sleep happy hours away—an owner who later remembered his loss and, perhaps, returned and gathered up his belongings before tramping on. Then, again, someone else may have walked off with them; in which case, what happened to the man who abandoned his clothes?

Late Bride Honored.

A very pretty affair to occur lately was the miscellaneous shower held at Guild hall in honor of Mrs. Charles Piombo (Wanda Beasley), a recent bride. Wanda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beasley, of this locality. She secured most of her early education in Hopland schools and has many friends here. In the late spring she was employed as window trimmer for Penney's in Ukiah, giving up that position to become Mrs. Piombo.

Span Is Finished.

The new concrete bridge spanning Dooley creek in East Sanel, is completed, all but the guard rails. It is a beautiful structure and one for the valley to be justly proud of. Cars pass across it daily now on their way to Lake county and other points.

For Blessed Event.

A stork shower for Mrs. Chas. Leake (Ruby Nix) was held at Guild Hall recently and the honoree received many pretty and useful gifts. About 25 guests were present and a happy time was had at the lovely affair.

William Vella was here over the Labor Day vacation, looking after property interests. The Vella home is in San Francisco.

Traffic Dropped Off.

Labor Day was quiet in Sanel Valley. The traffic to Lake county, via the Hopland grade, was noticeably lacking — no motorcycles and few cars with boat trailers. Summer is at its close when this happens.

John Haas was here several days visiting at his Valley Oaks Farm.

Are Coming Home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dyar, of the Fountain ranch, are expected to arrive home from San Diego this week. They will be accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Clark.

OPA CEILINGS REMOVED ON SOUP AND CHOWDER

All canned and frozen condensed and ready to serve soups, including broths, bouillons, consommes and chowders, have been removed from price control, the Office of Price Administration announced today. The exemption covers both domestic and imported soups and is based upon the adequacy of current and prospective supply to meet domestic requirements. This follows one of the requirements for decontrol set forth in the Price Control Extension Act of 1946.

CANDIDATE IN CITY WEEKEND

Seeking Attorney Generalship, Aspirant Sees Many

(Carried from Page One)

While here the gentlemen were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. O'Brien.

Has Strong Support.

Mr. Brown, the vigorous, energetic administrator whose record for honesty and competence has brought to his side a coalition of leading lawyers, businessmen, women's groups, clergymen and labor groups from both major parties, is no stranger to the "grass roots" sections of the state. Since he was elected District Attorney of San Francisco several years ago, Mr. Brown has been sought as a lecturer in crime prevention, juvenile delinquency and public administration in every part of California. So effective was Mr. Brown's program of preventing juvenile delinquency in San Francisco, C. H. Close, superintendent of the Preston School at Ione, wrote him: "I am in a position to observe the delinquency situation in all parts of the State. San Francisco is to be commended for the excellent work its various agencies have performed in meeting a very difficult situation during the last three years. This institution is receiving relatively fewer boys from the City and County of San Francisco than from any other large center in the State."

Part Of His Background.

With an outstanding background as a practicing attorney before Federal, State and Municipal courts, Edmund G. Brown some years ago was appointed by the Governor of California a member of the State Code Commission—a position requiring a deep insight into the knowledge of the law and the drafting of codes under which the laws of the State of California are organized. In addition, he has served as a director of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District—a position in which he has been responsible for directing and guiding a people's investment of $35,000,000.

Strength Is Gaining.

With various headquarters for Mr. Brown's election to the Attorney Generalship now being established in all parts of the State, more and more leaders in all walks of life and political affiliations have joined in endorsing his candidacy. Among them are Maurice Harrison, distinguished California attorney and Chairman of Mr. Brown's Campaign Committee; Hon. Jesse W. Curtis and Hon. John W. Preston, former associate justices of the California State Supreme Court and leading Southern California lawyers; Walden Ames, prominent San Diego Republican leader and lawyer; M. C. (Sam) Herman, State Adjutant, V. F. W.; Parker Maddux, president of the San Francisco Bank; Dan Del Carlo, Business Representative of the Building and Construction Trades Council, American Federation of Labor; Rev. Ralph W. Bayless, Pacific Coast Executive, American Bible Society, and Mrs. H. W. Thomas, California clubwoman and authority on the problems of juvenile delinquency.

NEAR FATAL ATTACK BY YELLOWJACKETS

Jack Wilson, St. Helena rancher, is going to have a very healthy respect for yellow-jackets, following his experience of last week. While shaking prunes, Mr. Wilson dislodged a nest of yellowjackets and almost immediately was covered on the head and hands by an infuriated swarm, each one stinging. Mr. Wilson became unconscious from the effect of the poisoned stings, while his face and hands were swollen out of recognition. Rushed to a doctor, Mr. Wilson was given adrenalin and oxygen. After a restless night he showed improvement the following day and is continuing to improve as the insect's' poison is being gotten out of Mr. Wilson's system.

CAUGHT MANY SMELT

(The Mendocino Beacon)

Bud Byers, wife and children, of Ukiah, came over Thursday evening to visit Grandma and Grandpa Byers. While here Bud, Harry and Joe and Charles Bishop spent 45 minutes on the beach and came home with a car full of smelt—Enough for all the neighbors and then some. They returned to Ukiah Saturday night.

If you fail to read The Republican Press you will not get all of the news of Mendocino county.

Pear Crop Lighter — But Fruit Was Unusually Fine

Special Correspondence of The Press

POTTER VALLEY, Sept. 1.—Pear picking is nearly over. There are only a few left to pick. The crop was not heavy here this year but the pears were of unusually fine quality.

Fall In The Air.

The weather has changed from stifling heat of the last week to cool, balmy, fall weather and the nights are definitely cold.

Many Are Hunting.

Deer hunting is going strong, with rifle shots echoing in early mornings and afternoons. We have not had the forest fires and heavy smoke of last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hillary, of Iowa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Norman Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Norman and daughter, Joan, went to Santa Rosa Friday. Joan is having her teeth straightened.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Bailey moved Saturday to the new home they purchased in Rincon Valley on the outskirts of Santa Rosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Dunn and son, Harold, are moving into the home they purchased from Allie Bailey.

Have New Cars.

The Percy Whitcombs and Frank Gibsons are proud owners of new Plymouth cars.

Visiting In Willits.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Whitcomb went to Willits Thursday to visit Mrs. Charles Hardisty and Mrs. Whitcomb's mother, Mrs. Christine Whitcomb.

Are Going Home.

Joe and Clara Adams will return home to Alder Point Wednesday. This will conclude a six weeks' vacation which they have passed in San Francisco, Ukiah, Potter Valley and on the coast.

Guests of Olga Spotswood this week are Martha Newman, A. L. Brimmer and Gus and Ernest Richter.

Olga Spotswood is returning to San Francisco to visit this week with Martha Newman.

Joe Murphy and Peter Rohrer are visiting at the Whitcomb home.

Evelyn Whitcomb, Russell Mohr, Pete Rohrer and Joe Murphy went to Hoberg's to a dance Saturday night.

Alvin Adams will start as relief man at the power house Wednesday.

Got First Deer.

Viva Lowe and son, Marvin, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lowe. Marvin shot his first buck while hunting here this week.

Mrs. Pearl Lawrence, of Lakeport, was a guest at the Frank Lowe home this week.

To Meet Teacher.

Mrs. Isabelle Frost and daughter, Urla, went to Berkeley Wednesday to meet Mrs. Fern Hees and two sons, Karl and John, of Phoenix, Arizona. Mrs. Fern Hees is our new music teacher.

Entertained At Berkeley.

Mrs. Isabelle Frost, Urla Frost, Mrs. Hees and sons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt, of Berkeley, until Saturday. Saturday Mrs. Frost and Urla returned home accompanied by Mrs. Fern Hees and sons, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt and Alfred Knowles, of Alameda.

Over From Valley.

Mrs. Gladys Shimmin and daughter, Harriet, from Yuba City, are visiting Mrs. Elva Pickle.

Out Of Hospital.

Jimmie Eddie returned home from the hospital Saturday. Jimmy is recovering nicely.

Are On Coast.

Roberta and Clarence Harvey, Eva and Henry Dickey, Lucile Dickey and Dan Zgombic and Melva and Herbert Adams went to the coast for the three-day holiday.

The Harisons came up to pass the weekend on their ranch here.

Mr and Mrs. George Ward were visiting here Sunday.

CLOVERDALE SOLD VACANT CITY LOTS

Spirited bidding and a handsome profit to the city marked the public auction Saturday morning of the vacant property next to the city hall at Cloverdale. After a double round of bidding by four other persons, the auctioneer's hammer fell following a bid of $6,000 by Nick Skover, who had not previously been in the contest. Mounting the city hall steps, City Attorney J. A. Ratchford, acting as auctioneer, stated the proposition at hand and called for bids. Mrs. B Guisto opened at $3,800, $50 above the acceptable minimum. Successively the bid was raised by F. C. Gatta, Dr. A. G. Galbreath, H. J. Davini, then again by Gatta, Galbreath, Mrs. Guisto and Gatta. At this point Mr. Skover made his one, but successful bid. So far as the city is concerned, the lot, which it purchased about a year ago, is back on the assessment rolls, having netted the city a profit of $2,750 over the $3,250 paid for the property. A modern two-story building with full basement, costing approximately $30,000, will be constructed on the lot next to the city hall, according to Nick Skover, who purchased the property from the city at public auction Saturday. On the main floor will be two or three stores to rent, Mr. Skover said, with the basement providing space for a bowling alley, pool room, barber shop and beauty parlor. The second floor will be made into offices for professional men, and apartments, according to present plans. Construction is to be of concrete and concrete blocks. Also on the ground floor, Mr. Skover stated, will be facilities for conducting a refrigeration and air conditioning business to be operated by the two Skover boys, Frank and Roy, who are now taking special courses in this field, as well as business training.

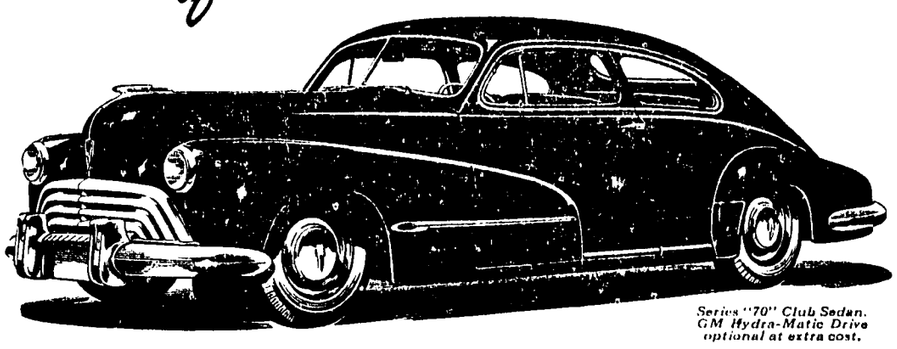
To those who are awaiting delivery of their New Oldsmobiles


Series "70" Club Sedan. GM Hydra-Matic Drive optional at extra cost.

A Word of Appreciation . . . and a Suggestion, too!

We know how anxious you are to get your new Oldsmobile. And there's nothing we'd like better to do, right now, than to say to every Oldsmobile buyer: "Your car is here. Come get it!"

But frankly, it just isn't possible to do that. There still aren't enough new Oldsmobiles to go around. Due to shortages in materials and unavoidable limitations on production, the output of new cars still is behind schedule. And our allotments are far below the figures that we originally anticipated.

We want to assure you, however, that everything possible is being done, both here and at the factory, to get your car in your hands promptly. And we'd like to take this occasion to thank you sincerely for the patient and considerate way in which you have borne with us during this period of waiting.

Meanwhile, we have an important suggestion: Don't neglect the car you drive today.

The war has taught us all the importance of careful upkeep and regular service. While you're waiting for your new Oldsmobile, therefore, be sure to take advantage of our factory-authorized Oldsmobile service program. We are offering every kind of modern automotive service—from lubrication to major overhauls. Regular servicing of your car will safeguard your investment and assure you of safe, dependable transportation until that great day when your new Oldsmobile is here!

ARM BECAME USELESS

Elbert Tolman Stricken By The Side Of Road Recently

(Carried from Page One)

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wilkin had as their guests during part of last week, Mrs. Wilkin's father, Urban Elwood, of Salem, Oregon, who was accompanied by a friend. While here Mrs. Wilkin accompanied them on a trip to the coast. They are passing a few days in San Francisco and will stop over here enroute home. This is Mr. Elwood's first trip to California and he is doing as much sight-seeing as possible. The visit came as a pleasant surprise to Mrs. Wilkin. It has been several years since she had seen her father.

Many At Coast.

Many valley residents motored to Fort Bragg for the Paul Bunyan celebration.

Were On Visit.

S. E. Sanford, former N. W. P. agent at Cloverdale, now residing in San Rafael, called on old friends here Saturday. He was accompanied by his daughter and son-in-law and was enroute to the coast.

Old Friends Here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Archibald, of Martinez, are passing a week with Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Smith at their home near Boonville. The Smiths formerly made their home in Martinez and the two families are old friends.

Had Family Homecoming.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Guisti had as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gomes, Mr. and Mrs. John Shortridge, Miss Mafalda Guisti, Tony Magio, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Faraudo and three sons, all of Santa Rosa. Mrs. Gomes, Mrs. Shortridge and Miss Guisti are sisters and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Guisti.

Visited Her Sister.

Miss Carmen Kramer, of Oakland, passed Labor Day vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Knute Neilsen, of the Boonville Hotel. Miss Kramer is a sister of Mrs. Neilsen.

Victim Brought Home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Babcock motored to Ukiah Tuesday last to bring Mrs. Babcock's brother, Joseph Rawles, home from the hospital where he has been confined since having his leg broken by a hit and run driver some time ago. Their mother, Mrs. Hetty Rawles, accompanied them. Mr. Rawles is able to get about a bit but the mystery of who ran him down has not been solved to date.

Pickers Are Busy.

Prune and hop picking in the valley is under way with many responding to the call for help in saving the crops. Most of the prunes are reported sold at top price.

Drove To Los Angeles.

Sam Avery made a business trip to Los Angeles during the past week. He took time out from logging on his place in the Signal district to motor down.

A Delayed Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. James and son, Richard James of Palo Alto, were recent houseguests at the J. T. Farrer home here. Mrs. James and J. T. Farrer are cousins but had not seen each other in the past 40 years. During their stay here they motored to Fort Bragg and were accompanied by Mrs. E. S. Lemon, aunt of Mrs. James.

Picket Line Fading.

There has been something missing at Philo the past week. The picket line in front of the Philo Lumber Co. plant failed to show up for duty Monday morning and the lumber company is just as much in the dark as ever as to why they were picketed and now they wonder why the pickets were called off. One report is the 52 cents an hour reported to have been paid the pickets was running into too much money for the Union to continue when results showed the mill was not affected by the pickets. Trucks came in every day and were loaded and work at the mill went on as before. There was never any reason for the picket line there in the first place, as it was a non-union mill and no question of wages or hours were involved and several other mills in the valley were running under like conditions and no attention was paid them. Organizers tried, at all valley mills, to get a foothold, but failed to convince the men they should join the Union, but the Philo Lumber Company was the only one picketed. The Redwood Empire Labor Journal in its May 16 issue stated in its "Mendocino Strike Bulletin" of a visit of the organizers to Anderson Valley and mentioned that "owners of the Philo Lumber Co. mill were not disposed to be favorable towards the Union, but perhaps they will change their minds after the talk they had with Brother Muir." That may be the real reason Philo Lumber Company drew a picket line. To ease the ruffled feelings of the "Brothers," other organizers here at that time were Harry Dwyer, Matt Hautala and Oscar A. Erickson.

Died In Lake County.

George Syler returned Thursday from Finley, Lake county, where he was called by the death of his brother, James A. Syler, who passed away August 20.

Mrs. H. Charles and Mrs. Lena Deranleau were recent business visitors in Healdsburg. They motored down.

Board To Meet.

A church board meeting was called for last night at the Boonville church. Stewards, trustees and Sunday School teachers were expected to attend.

Women Do Work.

"Bill" McAllister, son of the Robert McAllisters of Signal, who is stationed in Germany writes of the strange sights we see there daily and among them he listed three-wheeled cars, the use of cows to plow land, and he told of the hard work that is done by the women and girls of that country, work only a man would be expected to do in this country.

Married Sunday Afternoon.

The Boonville Methodist church was the setting for the exchange of marriage vows between Marillyn J. Tindall and Wilmot G. Presley at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, with Rev. C. L. Goodenough reading the marriage service. The church was decorated with ivy and baskets of gladioli in pastel colors and tall candelabra with lighted tapers formed a background for the bridal party. Mrs. G .A. Reilly was at the piano and the bridal procession came up the aisle to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Maurice W. Tindall. She was attended by Miss Catherine Nobles, maid of honor and Misses Melissa Presley and Betty Mae Smith, bridesmaids, and Judy Dightman, flower girl. Harry K. Presley stood with his brother as best man and the ushers were Vern and Wayne Presley, also brothers of the groom.

Marillyn repeated her vows in an exquisite gown of traditional white satin made with a square neckline, fitted bodice with long sleeves and full skirt that extended into a long train. Her veil was finger-tip and was embroidered in crystal orange blossoms and she wore a coronet of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, roses and gardenia. Her attendants wore similar gowns of chiffon—Catherine and Melissa were in blue and Betty Mae in pink—they carried white chrysanthemums and wore a coronet of tiny mums in their hair. Judy wore a floor length dress of white marquisette and carried a white basket of flowers as she preceded the bride. Mrs. W. M. Tindall, the bride's mother, wore a white print jersey, with black accessories, and Mrs. D. V. Presley, mother of the groom, was in chartreuse, with black accessories. Both had white rosebud corsages. Miss Charmain Ward was soloist and sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Congratulate Newlyweds.

A reception followed the nuptials at the local high school and was attended by over 175 guests. The wedding cake was a masterpiece of the baker's art. It was a three-tier cake topped by miniature bride and groom and "Bill" assisted his bride in cutting the first cut. Cake and punch were served the guests by Mrs. Walter Tuttle, Mrs. Wayne Presley and Mrs. Max Dightman.

An Only Daughter.

The new Mrs. Presley is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs Maurice W. Tindall and the granddaughter of C. D. Tindall. She is a charming young woman and made a lovely bride. She is a graduate of the local high school, attended the College of the Pacific at Stockton one year and is a graduate of the Santa Rosa Junior College. At present Mrs. Presley is employed in the Title office in Ukiah.

Served In War.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Presley. He has three brothers, Harry, Vern and Wayne and three sisters, Mrs. Virginia Hayden and Melissa and Maxine. Mr. Presley is a graduate of the local high school and served as a Sergeant in the Army. He was in the final stages of the war in Germany and later served with the occupation forces there and, although he was in some of the worst battles, he escaped uninjured. He received his honorable discharge last spring.

Are On Honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Presley left following the reception, for an undisclosed destination and after their honeymoon will be at home in Ukiah where they have purchased a home.

Came For Wedding.

Guests at the D. V. Presley home, coming here for the wedding, were Mrs. Carrie Van Voast, of Ukiah, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood and daughter, Miss Betty Mae Wood, of San Leandro, Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Presley, of San Francisco, and Vern Presley and his sister, Miss Melissa Presley, of Santa Rosa.

Guests At Tindall Home.

Guests at the M. W. Tindall home were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Graham, of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. O'Bleness, of Ashland, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Terry, Richard, Louella and Donald Terry, of San Diego.

Buried In Valley.

William Nissen passed away in Boonville August 24 and was buried from that place August 27 from the Methodist church, Rev. C. L. Goodenough officiating. William Nissen was born in San Francisco March 29, 1866, and came with his parents to Point Arena in 1871 and lived there through his childhood and early manhood. He was 80 years of age at the time of his passing. Another oldtimer gone. He leaves to mourn his passing, one son, Roy, of Palo Alto, one sister, Mrs. Jessie L. Bivans, of Boonville, three brothers, Frank of Eureka, Victor of Santa Cruz and Harry of Boonville, together with many friends who will miss his kindly nature and ever ready smile.

FORMER UKIAH BOY IS TROUBLED BY INJURY

(The Calistoga Calistogan)

Corporal "Bill" Roberts, son of Chief Deputy Sheriff Lee Roberts, underwent surgery Thursday morning at Calistoga when doctors operated on his right foot in an attempt to clear up a condition which was brought about when an ammunition case fell across both Mr. Roberts' feet during the time he was in service. —"Bill" Roberts is a former Ukiah young man and not long ago got out of service.

provide a most commodious store on the first floor when completed. Even in its partly completed state it presents a fine appearance and adds materially to the business section of the city.

Millman Died At 73.

Alexander Aalto died here last week, aged 73 years. Born in Finland, he came to this country while quite young and had lived in California 65 years, 45 of which were with the Union Lumber Company at Fort Bragg. He is survived by his widow, three sons and a granddaughter. Funeral services were held at the Finnish Methodist church, Rev. J. J. Hillberg officiating.

L. H. White Passed Away.

Leah Hubert White died here last week at the age of 60 years. Born in Tennessee Mr. White followed ranching most of his life and moved to Fort Bragg a few years ago when he retired. He is survived by his widow and daughter. Funeral services were held at the Funeral Home, Rev. C. C. Huthnance officiating.

Safeguarding Baby's Health.

A well-baby clinic was held at the grammar school last Saturday.

High School Principal Leaves.

At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Fort Bragg Union High School District Tuesday night at the local high school the board released Vance D. Lewis from his contract as principal of the Fort Bragg Senior High School and appointed James L. Snell, the present superintendent of schools, to the position of both superintendent and principal. Mr. Lewis has accepted employment at San Luis Obispo.

Have Little Girl.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olson and has been named Claire Diane.

Game Fish Much Admired.

A 17-pound albacore graced the counter of the Main stret Sea Food Market Monday and during the few hours it was on exhibition attracted many to view this good game fish. Though of only medium size, it was solid and plump. Our ocean resources have only been slightly tapped thus far and a variety of food fish are now being brought in, and the list is being added to yearly.

Navy Man Marries.

Raymond S. Crosby, U. S. Navy and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crosby of Fort Bragg, was married to Miss Vera Sherburne at Huntington Park, California, at an elaborate candlelight ceremony at the Christian church. The groom has lived here most of his life and is a graduate of our schools. He has been in the Navy a number of years and is now stationed at Long Beach.

New Officers For N. D. G. W.

Fort Bragg Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, installed the following officers: Worthy President, Hazel Kennedy; First Vice-President, Elsie Thorstrom; Second Vice-President, Marguerite Heitmeyer; Third Vice-President, Ruth Fuller; Recording Secretary, Grace Haglund; Financial Secretary, Marjorie Linberg; Treasurer, Ruth Matthews; Marshal, Esther Berkovits; Organist, Mabel Stagner; Inside Sentinel, Jean Wold; Outside Sentinel, Audrie Sherlock; Trustees, Lily Morley, Loretta Francis and Helen Goranson. A delegation came over from Ukiah to attend the installation and they had the usual elaborate banquet.

Walter Versino came up from San Francisco to visit his father.

Mrs. Celia Baeg, of Santa Fe, New Mexico, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gino Galli and family.

Andy Smith Passed Away.

Andrew H. Smith died at his home in Fort Bragg last week and was 63 years of age. He was born in Sonoma county and followed ranching until recently. He is survived by his widow, daughter and two sons. The remains were taken to Sonoma county for burial.

Two Families Have Girls.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo DelGrosso and has been named Gale Susan. Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Stump are also proud parents of a baby girl, born at Community Hospital.

Wed In San Diego.

Russell Montgomery, who was born and raised in Fort Bragg and who is a son of Mrs. Florence Montgomery, was married to Winifred Woolery at San Diego. He was recently discharged from the Navy following six years of service. The young couple will make their home in Honolulu.

Meat-Eating Bear Killed.

Anthony Fashauer killed a 400-pound bear in Anderson Valley near Philo. Bruin had been feeding on lambs.

Had Nevada Wedding.

John Gujalda and Miss Margaret Boniface were married in Reno. They enjoyed a month at Lake Tahoe and are now living in Fort Bragg. The bride is the daugher of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boniface of Fort Bragg and is a student at Fort Bragg high school. The groom was recently discharged from the Army. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kujala, of Fort Bragg.

Mr. and Mrs. George Danver, of Stockton, were here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. LeVerne Haglund.

Dolphy Galli visited relatives and friends in San Francisco several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Patton and son accompanied Mrs. Ralph Todd, Jr., to Santa Rosa last week.

Elected Post Officers

Fort Bragg Post, American Legion, will install officers at the meeting September 4. All the new officers, with the exception of Rev. J. L. Kent, chaplain, are young men and veterans of the global war.

Will Re-route Highway.

Unusual activity is manifest at the present time by surveying crews of the State Highway Department along this coast with the intention of re-routing or improving sections of Shoreline Highway. One development now taking place and signifying the permanent nature of the work being undertaken, is the new bridge and approaches at Alder Creek, where the partial collapse of the old bridge under heavy and increasing traffic made replacement imperative.

Running Several Lines

All last week a surveying crew of 10 members has been busy south of Big River where several surveys are being made, one of which will ultimately be selected as a permanent section of what in time may come to be one of the greatest scenic highways of the west.

Horse And Buggy Bridge Weak.

Big River bridge, built years ago to accommodate principally horse-drawn and only limited automobile traffic, is now weakening under the strain of heavy truck traffic, and may become an emergency issue, especially next winter when freshet conditions prevail. Surveys in this section are evidently being accelerated to provide the proper approaches for a new structure which will take the place of this bridge and provide a lasting and sufficient structure to accommodate the increasing traffic of the future.

A "DOLLING UP" EPIDEMIC HAS FOUND COVELO

Round Valley Community Vigorously Face-Lifting

EVERYONE AFFECTED

Homes, Ranches And Business Houses Being Painted

(Carried from Page One)

1918, and was 27 years 11 months and 19 days old at the time of his untimely passing. Death is always sad but when it comes upon us suddenly, without warning, and takes from us a young person, who has so many years of good and useful life before him, it is a blow doubly heavy and we wonder why it is so. Thus it is with the passing of Freddie Hart, a young man full of promise and who, had he continued on in his way could not have failed to have made the world better day by day in his own way. It seemed everyone who met him could feel the friendliness and true goodness of him in his pleasing personality and his striving always to help everyone in every way.

He Was Popular.

His friends numbered everyone in our valley. A profusion of beautiful flowers on and around the casket gave mute testimony of the love he had of the entire community.

At Burial Hour.

Mrs. Earl McGowan played soft beautiful music—a prelude to the services conducted by Rev. Ernest DeFord. Rev. Anthony Hodge gave an opening prayer, followed by the Twenty-third Psalm read by Rev. DeFord, and "The Lord Is My Shepherd" was very feelingly sung by Carl Delgado, a close friend of the dead young man. Rev. DeFord read excerpts from St. Matthew, twenty-third chapter, verses which seemed to be just for the occasion: "I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in." Rev. DeFord could recall just such instances or experiences with Fred when he came to Covelo. Messrs. Sam and Will Gray sang "Some Day We'll Understand," with much feeling and with a prayer the service was over. Beside his wife, Jeanne, Mr. Hart leaves his mother, Hazel Hart, his brothers, Cecil and Stanley who served through World War II, James, and his sister, Lillian, his grandmother, Mrs. Melissa Gravier, his grandfather, E. A. Gravier, his uncles, Mervin, George and Arlow Ogle, all of Covelo. The pallbearers were Leo Sanders, Mr. Cates, Gus Redwine, Mr. Bartenhagen, Everett Osborne and Mervin Lee. As he took up his abode in the quiet "city on the hill," Miss Ernestine DeFord, assisted by Sam and Will Gray, sang "In the Garden," very beautifully.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beville, who have been visiting Mrs. Beville's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Rohrbough in Covelo, returned to their home in Mesa, Arizona, last week.

Are At Spyrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Langland and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haydon and Terry Lee went to Spyrock Friday where they will visit a few days with Mr. and Mrs. James Haydon.

He Was Six.

A delightful birthday party was arranged for little John (Bunky) Beville on his sixth birthday Tuesday, by his mother, Mrs. Charles Beville, and his grandmother, Mrs. Myrtle Rohrbough. His little friends gathered on the lawn at the John Rohrbough residence. Two birthday cakes, with candles, were made by Mrs. Beville and Mrs. Rohrbough and, with ice cream, proved very satisfactory to the young folks who were, besides the honoree, Bunky, his sister, Susan, his brother, Charles, his cousins, Johnnie and little twin brothers (children of Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrbough), Mrs. Audrey Tuttle, the Tuttle twins and Nancy Jane, Katherine Rome, Mrs. Wilma Hurt, daughter, Brenda, and son, Billie, Mrs. Mabel Short, Philip Rohrbough, an uncle, and his father, Charles Beville. Mrs. Tuttle took many colored movie films of the little ones.

Has Concluded Visit.

Frank R. Haydon returned Saturday from Potter Valley, where he has been visiting his brother, Lewis, and family.

Many Are Painting.

Covelo buildings and the adjacent ranch buildings and residences are being dressed up this summer and fall. Coats of paint are doing the work and the improvement is very great. Gravier Brothers store is the latest to receive its coat.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Board of Trustees of the Anderson Union (Elementary) School District of Mendocino County, California, at the residence or postoffice address of Mrs. Iva C. Mackintosh, Clerk, at Boonville, California, until 5:00 P. M. on September 18th, 1946, for the drilling of a well on the site selected for the new school building to be erected by said board. Said site being the two south lots of the St. John Estate, adjoining the Anderson Valley Union High School site on its north, and approximately three miles north of Boonville, California, on California State Highway No. 28. Said well is to be contracted for and drilled under the following conditions and specifications by the successful bidder, hereinafter referred to as the Contractor.

1. Contractor shall drill at a spot on the above described site to be selected by said board of trustees.

2. Contractor shall furnish all labor, tools, machinery and materials used in said drilling, and shall drill an eight (8) inch well, furnishing eight inch single, red, hard, twelve (12) gauge casing, and shall thoroughly perforate casing, when in place, at the heavy gravel stratas encountered.

3. Contractor shall drill said well to such depth as to secure a supply of water which shall furnish, on test pumping, not less than five (5) gallons of water per minute for a period of not less than three (3) hours, without appreciable exhaustion. Said test pumping to be conducted by said contractor at his expense and to be subject to the inspection and approval of said board of trustees or its representative. In the event of no such water supply being encountered, discontinuance of drilling in the first location and moving the site of the well is to be done only with the approval of said board of trustees or its representative. Should such moving of the location of the well be decided upon, drilling in such other location shall be continued under the same terms, conditions, and at the same bid price as set forth herein and bid under these conditions. Or drilling may be discontinued at the decision of said Board of Trustees or its representative, payment being made for the drilling done as per the contract entered into.

4. Contractor shall insure all his employees engaged on said job according to all the requirements of the Workmans Compensation Law of the State of California.

5. Contractor shall state in his bid, and in the contract, the date on which drilling will be commenced, and same shall be a condition of the contract.

6. Contractor shall furnish such surety as the Board of Trustees may require, as a guarantee of faithful performance of contract, and of payment by the contractor for all labor, supplies and materials furnished on said job. All bids must be addressed to the Board of Trustees of the Anderson Union School District, care of Iva C. Mackintosh, Clerk, Boonville, California, and shall be endorsed:

"BID FOR DRILLING A WELL FOR THE ANDERSON UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MENDOCINO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA."

Bids will be opened, and contract allowed, at the regular September meeting of said Board of Trustees, to be held at the Indian Creek School, at Philo, California, at 8:00 P.M., Thursday, September 19th, 1946.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated this 26th day of August, 1946.

Veterans Are Backing Proposed Take From Dog Track Bill

Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan has revealed the official argument in favor of Proposition 2 on the November ballot—state-supervised greyhound racing—bears the signatures of Charles P. Ash, Commander of the California Department, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Lloyd E. Oleson, Commander of the California Department, Disabled American Veterans, and Dr. John L. Murphy, Past Commander of Zane Irwin Post 93 of the American Legion.

What Plan Is.

Proposition 2 sets up a Veterans Fund in the State Department of Veterans Affairs into which four percent of dog track wagers would be paid to finance veterans' welfare and rehabilitation services. County and district agricultural associations would also benefit.

The Take Is Large.

The official statement, signed by the three veteran leaders, declares Greyhound racing in the state would make available at least $2,000,00 annually for veterans' welfare and rehabilitation services, obviating the need for state tax support, which now inadequately finances these services. The statement points out Proposition 2 would "protect the public interest" by (1) creating a supervisory California Greyhound Racing Board, (2) confining wagering to the totalisator and parimutuel system ,and (3) preventingexcessive racing by limiting it to 25 days a year in counties with a population of 175,000 or more. Los Angeles and San Francisco metropolitan areas would be allowed a maximum of 74 racing days each year, divided into periods of 37 days each, scheduled at least 60 days apart. Agricultural fairs would be permitted to conduct greyhound racing events without paying a license fee.

OWNER SWITCH WILL NOT BE A BAD HANDICAP

Los Angeles Company's Entrance Into Deal Unimportant

PLANS NOT ALTERED

Home Building Will Probably Increase Operation Scope

(Carried from Page One)

Bilt Homes Co., Inc., of Los Angeles. No changes will be made in plans, according to James K. Pierce, president of the Pre-Bilt Homes Company. Harrah Bros., of Willits, have their order to build the new mill and will carry on the job just as originally planned. It will be a steel mill of modern construction throughout. The new owners operate a big business in Los Angeles, the pricipal product being a line of pre-built homes. They will use all the lumber cut in this mill for their own operations, as well as much more lumber from other sources.

What Plans Are.

Harrah Bros. estimate the new mill will be completed by January 1, 1947, and it is expected to run two shifts daily within a short time after that.

Seek Housing Space.

The Willits mill will be operated by the Land and Lumber Division of the Pre-Bilt Homes Co., and they are now making plans for erection of houses here for their employes. This project will be started off in the near future when they ship one of their pre-built houses here and put it up on the mill property. It will be occupied by their employes and later will be used for an office. Afterwards Mr. Pierce expects to have 50 of their houses shipped here by truck and they will be erected, not only for their employes, but for any others who may want them. The first house will serve as a sample and anyone will be welcome to examine it at any time, before or after it is erected.

Cars In Crash.

Cars driven by Donald Lima, of Fresno, and Clarence Ivers, of Los Angeles, had a head-on collision at the blind turn at Holland's Camp two miles south of Willits Thursday morning. Fortunately both cars were going slow and the three persons involved escaped with minor injuries—Mrs. Ivers had a small head cut which was treated at the hospital.

Had Church Wedding.

Charles Zanella, popular mail carrier, was married to Miss Janena Paczesniak, of San Francisco, at Willits Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Ahern officiating. Following the ceremony the wedding party adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zanella, where a reception was held and refreshments served. The young couple are passing their honeymoon in Oregon and Washington and on return will make their home at the Zanella residence in the south end of town.

Given Heavy Fines.

Mrs. Laurene Roper, of Hearst, was arrested by Traffic Officer Fred Hamilton after she had crashed into the side of a truck about four miles north of Willits. Mrs. Roper was accompanied by her husband, Clyde Roper, and he was also arrested for being drunk in an automobile on the highway. They were taken before Judge Fred Foord and both pleaded guilty. Mrs. Roper was fined $300 plus $50 additional for not having a driver's license and Mr. Roper was fined $50. Mrs. Roper was taken to Howard Memorial Hospital where it was discovered she had two broken ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dennison, of Venita, Oregon, visited Mrs. Dennison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kobe, last week.

Was After Deer.

Fred Alpers came up from Rodeo on his annual hunt last week.

Pair Set Free.

Jack Manning, of Willits, and Wm. Carter, of Fort Bragg, have been released from custody by local police. They were suspected of being involved in a local burglary but each furnished a good alibi.

Mrs. Katherine Whited, of Santa Rosa, visited Mrs. Florence Willits last week.

Two Infants Born.

Two babies were born at Howard Memorial Hospital: Daughters to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Treet and to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cantrell.

To Live In Oakland.

Miss Vivian Lucille Brewer and Vernon Wesley Haselswerdt were married at an elaborate service at the Methodist church, Rev. Wm. Haggerty officiating. Both bride and groom have passed most of their lives in this vicinity and both are graduates of our high school. The groom was recently discharged from the Navy and the young couple will make their temporary home in Oakland while Mr. Haselswerdt attends San Francisco Junior College in preparation for a career in Federal Grazing Control.

A Department Dance.

The fire department sponsored a dance at the Park Pavilion Saturday night. The net proceeds will be used to purchase additional equipment and turnout suits.

Plans Activities.

The Women's Improvement Club has completed summer vacation and will resume sessions Friday, September 6, at Quadrio Park. In addition to the business session refreshments will be served.

On Motor Tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Muir and daughter, Pat, left last week on an auto trip that will include scenic points in Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico.

Had A Collision.

Chester Jessup, of Redding, and Samuel Rhodes, of Willits, had an auto collision at the blind corner of Mendocino and Humboldt streets Wednesday afternoon. Both cars were going slow and so neither of them was much damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. James Solomon, of Napa, are visiting Mrs. Edna Ross.

Flew To Bedside.

Thomas B. Franklin, manager of the J. F. Pritchard & Co. plant, was summoned to Kansas City by the serious illness of his father, who suffered a heart attack. Mr. Franklin made the trip by air.

Must Have Building.

The Willits and Laytonville schools, both of which are in the Willits Union High School District, will start September 9, according to announcement made by Superintendet Roy Good. On account of the lumber boom a new school building will have to be built in Laytonville.

Thrown From Truck.

Andy Summers, 62, a resident of Sherwood Valley, was thrown from a pickup truck and received a broken arm and severe cuts and bruises. He is at the hospital under the care of Dr. R. A. Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Persico and son have returned to their home in Long Beach following a visit with Willits relatives.

A Road Accident.

Injuries requiring hospitalization were suffered by two tourists Tuesday afternoon when two cars, one drawing a house trailer, came together on a curve about four miles south of Willits. Victims of the crash who are confined to Howard Memorial Hospital are LeRoy Goettsch, from Cherokee, Iowa, who received a broken nose and lip and face contusions, and Mrs. Lucille Patterson, of Glendale, who suffered a broken knee cap, broken nose and severe cuts and bruises.

Two Others Hurt.

Patricia Arnold, 12, Martha Nivon, 12, and Ilene Arnold, 34, occupants of Mrs. Patterson's car were treated at the hospital for minor hurts. Three other occupants of Goettsch's car were uninjured.

Out Of Her Place.

The wreck occurred, according to Traffic Officer Hamilton, when Mrs. Patterson, driving the car, which was towing the trailer, rounded a curve and swerved over the white line in the center of the pavement into the car driven by Mr. Goettsch, which was also over the center line in the highway. The collision was head-on and both drivers were cited by Officer Hamilton, Mrs. Patterson for swerving out of her lane of travel and Mr. Goettsch for passing another car too near a blind curve, his vehicle having just attempted to pass a piece of road equipment traveling in the same direction.

Given A Watch.

For his inspiring and persevering work in the organiaztion and management of the Willits Merchant ball team this summer, George Sirizzotti was presented a wrist watch during the baseball club dance Saturday night. Members of the baseball squad and businessmen were responsible for the gift, which represented appreciation for the untiring efforts of Mr. Sirizzotti long before the diamond season opened, and during the active season just closed, which resulted in the local team capturing the Mendocino-Lake County trophy and 15 victories in 18 games played.

Is Fined $150.

Arthur Kerr, of Sussex, Wisconsin, pleaded guilty to a drunken driving charge, made by local police, in the police court Monday morning. Judge Sacry assessed the usual fine of $150 for this offense, which was paid.

POLICE CATCH YOUNG RAPIST

Ex-Soldier Is Sought For Car Theft Was Apprehended

Charles Audrey Sarles, age 24, is in the county jail on a rape charge and is also facing necessity of having to explain the stealing of an auto from Eugene, Oregon, which, in trying to evade police, he wrecked.

Met Girl In Bar.

The accused is a discharged service man. Facts brought out by police officers at Willits indicate Mr. Searles met a Ukiah young woman, about 23, while in a Ukiah bar Wednesday evening. Following the pick-up acquaintance the two went for an auto ride, in the course of which the one-time soldier struck the young woman with a revolver and, knocking her down, criminally assaulted her. Following his raping the young woman, Mr. Sarles left the girl and fled. The victim later reported the facts to police and a call for Mr. Sarles' apprehension was sent out. Shortly after that Officer William Bergsen, on the late night shift, received a report from two local railroad men there was a wrecked car alongside the railroad track near Ben-Ra Motor Court, about five miles south of Willits. Mr. Bergsen investigated and got a good description of the car. No one was around when he arrived there. The car was in a gulley alongside the road and it appeared the driver had taken the curve at such high speed he almost flew through the air, to land in the ditch.

He Escaped Injury.

Later, when the driver was arrested, he stated he was traveling at more than 70 miles an hour speed. It developed afterwards the driver had not been hurt in the accident and managed to get a ride into Willits and there, discovering it was just about departure time for the 2.10 southbound Greyhound bus to leave, got aboard it. Soon after the departure of the bus Officer Bergsen investigated a tip he had just received the man involved in the wreck had gotten on the bus. Game Warden Gary Heryford and another officer in the meantime had joined in the hunt and met the bus at The Forks and there the suspect, seemingly sensing something wrong, started to leave the bus and walked into the arms of Officer Heryford and his companion officer and, upon alighting, the man was relieved of an automatic revolver.

Is The Rapist.

In the meantime the young woman who was attacked is said to have stated the prisoner was the man who had raped her.

LAUREL DELL CURVE • A DANGEROUS SPOT

(The Lakeport Press)

Who said lightning never strikes twice in the same place? Highway Patrolman C. R. Burris, of Lake county, has proof it can strike more than twice. August 16 at 3:15 p. m. a pear truck failed to make a curve opposite Laurel Dell Lodge; at 7:00 p.m. the same day another truck crashed into the wreckage. At exactly 5:20 p. m. Monday, while a wrecker was cleaning up the remaining pieces of the earlier crashes, a third truck came around the bend—that's right, the same bend—the trailer overturning and dragged 125 feet before the truck, driven by Charles Johnson, of San Jose, could stop.—Autoists from Ukiah, traveling into Lake county ,have to pass this particularly bad turn and, for their own safety, as well as for the safety of some other autoists, care should be taken in passing it. At this time many trucks are operating on this road, hauling fruit, and there is considerable danger.

BUSINESS MANAGER IS LEAVING TALMAGE POST

There came to The Republican Press the following cordial letter from A. E. Spillman, who has, for more than three years, very satisfactorily been Business Manager at the Mendocino State Hospital, and who has been, almost, a citizen of Ukiah, so thoroughly has he dovetailed in with all Ukiah public activities of a neighborly source. The letter reads: "Dear Mr. O'Brien: I am leaving for Norwalk August 31 and, of course, will want The Press mailed me at Norwalk State Hospital. I wish I could express more clearly how much I appreciate your kindness to me and my family during these years at Talmage. Needless to say, we shall always remember this. Sincerely, A. E. Spillman."

OPA SPARE STAMP 51 GOOD FOR SUGAR NOW

Spare Stamp 51 in family ration books was made good September 1 for five pounds of sugar for regular consumer use, and will be valid through December 31, the Office of Price Administration has announced. At the same time OPA announced Spare Stamp 49 will continue to be good for five pounds of sugar through September 30. By extending for 30 days, from August 31 through September 30, the period for which the current spare stamp for sugar is valid, OPA will make it possible for housewives in certain local shortage areas to cash in their stamps. Maldistribution, largely caused by the difficulty of getting box cars to ship sugar from producing areas to deficit consuming areas, has had the effect of making it impossible for housewives in certain sections of the country to cash their stamps for sugar.

KILLED CRIPPLED DEER AND PAYS $200 FINE

Shooting from the highway and killing a crippled deer on the Keeling ranch, then climbing over a sign-posted fence into a private field, Walter Blume, of Oroville, paid a $200 fine—but got no deer. He was apprehended in the field by Game Warden Jack Sawyer, shortly after he had killed the deer.
